[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JUNE 7.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Orleans Princes.

VERSAILLES, June 6.—Thiers, in conference with the Commissioners appointed by the Assembly to consider the bill concerning the Orleans Princes, urged that conditions should be attached by which the Princes were not to hold office before the expiration of two years and were liable to expulsion from France if they engaged in any intrigue looking to their restoration to the throne. It is now reported that Thiers has ceased to insist on these conditions.

Dispatches from Paris.

PARIS, June 6.—Postal service is completely restored.

It is announced that 20 000 Communist prisoners will be transported to New Caledonia.

Dispatches from Berlin.

BERLIN, June 6.—Commercial relations between Germany and France have been restored to the same footing as before the war.

Dispatches from Rome.

ROME, June 6.—An Encyclical letter has been issued calling on Catholics throughout the world to give thanks to God on the occasion of the Pope's jubilee.

Dispatch from London.

LONDON, June —The House of Lords passed the bill authorizing Canada to organize territorial governments in the country lying between the Dominion and the Pacific coast.

Advices from Hongkong to May [illegible] report that the coolie ship from Macao for Callao was burnt at sea and 650 coolies perished in the flames. The particulars received are conflicting.

EASTERN STATES.

Storm in Texas.

GALVESTON, June 6.—A terrible storm has prevailed here since noon last Saturday. The wind forced water from the gulf on the island, covering it to the depth of several feet in the southern portion of the city. About two miles of the track of the Galveston, Houston and Henderson Railroad have been washed away two miles above the city. Many buildings in the lower part of the city have been washed away. No lives were lost. Six inches of rain have fallen since two o clock Saturday afternoon. The storm also prevailed to a great extent at Houston, and much damage was done there.

Atlantic Cable Rates.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Atlantic Cable Company to day announce that the cable tariff for ten word messages after July 1st will be ten dollars gold, the date, address and signature to be counted and paid for. The limit of messages to fifty words has been removed and press dispatches hereafter will be charged full rates.

New Hampshire Politics.

CONCORD, June 6.—There is no reason to change the prediction that Weston will be elected. No doubt a majority of the House is made up as heretofore of Republicans but for some reason or another they will coalesce with the Democrats.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Ku Klux.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The sub committee for the investigation of alleged outrages in the South held a meeting to day, which was occupied throughout with the examination of Gov. Orr of South Carolina. He stated that he had no personal knowledge of the Ku Klux, and did not believe they existed in his section of the State. He expressed the opinion that such an organization did exist in some counties of North Carolina and that its object was to intimidate colored people from voting at the election in 18[illegible]. He believed the Constitution of the Council of Safety published in the Charleston Republican last February, was the basis of the organization.

The discontented colored laborers renewed their interferences with the white employes on the public works to day. Several arrests were made. A large force of police are preventing any dangerous outbreaks.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The weather is cooler, and the wind blowing fresh from the south west.

The schooner J H R[illegible] arrived to day from Klowack, Alaska with furs to Lynde & Hough.

It is stated positively that Alvinza Hayward yesterday bought out the entire interest of the Union Mill and Mining Co in the Crown Point Co, amounting to 4 100 shares, at the round price of $2 230 000, the largest transaction in stocks ever reported in San Francisco. There are some who doubt the statement, looking upon it as an indication of a vigorous bull movement.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

Prince Bismarck was recently asked his opinion regarding the civil war in France. His reply was, "[illegible]"—in other words, "I don't care two straws about it."

During the reign of the Commune the Bank of France was compelled to "loan" them $1 [illegible]06 000 which will be lost to the Bank unless the Versailles Government should vote to restore it to them.

It is stated that the grand total of the Communist forces amounted to 190 425 men, of whom 162 051 answered to their names when the muster roll was made up. Of these numbers 96,000 belonged to the marching legion and 64 000 were reserved for garrison duty.

President Correro has a novel way of replenishing the Panama Treasury. He recently invited a number of wealthy citizens to meet and make known their views concerning the financial situation. He then placed a guard over them, and announced his plan for raising a loan of $30,000. Correro's propositions were doubtless accepted, as we learn the gentlemen preferred giving their notes for the amount to languishing in prison. An agent will soon reach New York to negotiate these notes and purchase munitions of war.

While the largest breweries of England produce each from seventy to ninety million quarts of beer annually, the largest brewery of Germany produces about twenty three millions of quarts, and the largest of Austria about thirty eight millions of quarts. Irrespective of its export and import, England consumes about one hundred and twenty quarts of the beverage annually to each head of her population. Belgium sixty four, Germany, forty eight, Austria, twenty, France, eighteen, Switzerland sixteen quarts. At Munich, Bavaria, about two hundred and thirty quarts of lager beer to each head of the population are consumed annually. Munich is the most noted city for beer drinking in the world.

There are diverse statements regarding the conditions of the ex Emperor Napoleon's coffers. The understanding is fostered that he is so poor as to be compelled to borrow money from an English banker in order to maintain himself and keep out of the almshouse. On the other hand shrewd suppositions exist that his ex Majesty is something richer than a church mouse. His fortune and that of the Empress in the banks of Madrid, Frankfort, Brussels and London is estimated at the good round sum of 180 000 000 francs. They have also money in the Mexican and Trans Atlantic steamship companies, and the Empress also had stock to the value of many millions of francs in the Soleil Insurance Company of Paris, which wound up its affairs just before the war began—the Empress having received her share barely six weeks before her flight from the Tuileries.

The New York Tribune says: "Suffrage is to the women of this or any other country a right given or withheld, which trenches on their worldly comfort, probably, but does not touch in one whit their moral sense or the relations and obligations between God and their souls."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Affairs in France.

PARIS, June 6.—Patrie says that France possessed in July last 150 000 breech loaders and 420 000 soldiers and demands a rigorous suppression of the machinations of Communists in the Provinces.

The Minister of Marine has written to the managers of arsenals and navy yards instructing them to employ French and not foreign mechanics.

LONDON, June 7.—A Times' special dispatch from Berlin contains the following items:

The postponement of Rochefort's trial is said to be from apprehension of disclosures compromising the Government National defence.

The Siecle advocates the extension of Thiers' term of office.

Pyatt is in Switzerland.

The municipal elections at Marseilles and Tarascon are declared void.

Twenty five women were killed and fifty more wounded at the railway accident near Paris.

All pieces found of Column Vendome will be exactly restored.

It is rumored that Favre is preparing a reply to the manifesto of Prince Napoleon.

Thiers insists on giving the Republic a fair trial.

VERSAILLES, June 7.—The La Verite says that a compromise is effected under which the exile law is repealed, as regards Orleans Princes, and their election to the Assembly declared valid; but the Princes will not sit, and agree not to intrigue. It is said that Thiers agrees to the plan.

The La Verite estimates the damage to Paris at eight million francs of merchandise burned, excluding docks and warehouses.

The Hygiene Council declares that there will be no epidemic if precautions are taken to prevent it and that the health of Paris is satisfactory.

The Journal Officielle contains an Italian note guaranteeing to redeliver escaping insurgents.

Lullier has been arrested.

Reported disturbances at Lyons are false.

Gen Assy's trial will come off July 1st.

Arrests continue.

Louis Blanc has written to Figaro denouncing the Commune.

It is said that Ferry will be Minister to Washington.

MADRID, June 6.—Minister Moral will resign if disagreement continues with the Commission of Cortes and Budget continue.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The San Domingo report and accompanying documents are at last completed and will be issued next week.

EASTERN STATES.

The Flood Abating.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—The water remains stationary being an inch below the highest point reached. People continue moving from the overflowed districts. The city authorities and charitable committees continue to distribute food to the needy in the overflowed quarters.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Recent advices from Montevideo, represent the condition of affairs as not only not having improved, but as having grown alarmingly worse. About the 1st of May the yellow fever seemed to be abating and many refugees returned but the disease again broke out and the returned citizens fled in a panic.

The seat of government was about to be removed to Rosetero, at the last advices.

All communications between Monte Video and Buenos Ayres are positively prohibited.

There is no information regarding the mortality among American residents.

CANADA.

HALIFAX, June 7.—Three members of the Nova Scotia Government have been appointed a delegation to confer with the Government of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island with a view to united action against the Washington treaty.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The heated term appears to be over, and a furious northwester is now blowing.

News from Sydney.

The iron screw steamer City of Melbourne arrived from Sydney this evening, having left there May 4th. She brings the following passengers: G H Hall and wife, Mr Hatherton and wife, Mrs Graham and son, Mr Metcalf and family, Mrs Swan, Mrs Walbridge, Dr khorst, Aldworth, Smith, Green, Tillotson, H[illegible], Love and 37 in the second cabin and steerage. She touched at Honolulu for less than fifty tons cargo. She is the pioneer of the new English screw steamer line intended to run in connection with the P. and O. Company's line.

Sydney papers give details of a terrible cyclone or hurricane, in which the American brig Hesperly, from San Francisco, bound for Melbourne is supposed to have foundered with all on board. She was owned by Williams of this city and commanded by Capt. Bryant, formerly a San Francisco pilot, who had just been married and had his wife with him. The crew consisted of eight or ten.

The Sydney Chamber of Commerce resolved to ask Government to grant a subsidy of $50 000 to Hall's English San Francisco steamer line.

Immense quantities of gold are being obtained from the Caledonian reef, New Zealand. The Thames gold fields are producing well.

Heavy floods done great damage in South Australia.

The Government of New South Wales will loan half a million dollars for railway extensions.

This steamer brought a petition from the Governor of New South Wales to the English Government to annex the Fiji Islands. She also brings large mails for Europe.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The steamship Nevada made the run from San Francisco to Honolulu in seven days and sixteen hours. The City of Melbourne was eleven days in making the trip from Honolulu to San Francisco and thirty three days from Sydney. When the City of Melbourne left Sydney the mails by the Nevada had not arrived, and the general impression was that the American line would not be started. The New South Wales Government had voted no subsidy to this line, awaiting advices as to whether the American line would start. The English steamer compares very unfavorably with the Nevada, Nebraska and Moses Taylor in general appearance convenience and comfort for passengers.

The property holders interested for Montgomery avenue opening held a large and excited indignation meeting this evening. A Committee was appointed to take legal advice as to what measures could be taken to defeat the confirmation of the Commissioners' report. One speaker thought the cheapest and most effective way would be to hang the Commissioners; others declared that their lots had been assessed for benefits more than the entire value of the property. The opposition to the Commissioners' report is so general that it is doubtful if it can be confirmed.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

COLUSA, June 7.—The delegates from Colusa to the Democratic State Convention are as follows: D H Arnold, Dr W H Belton, J W Garther and L McDaniel, all pledged for Haight but will be unpledged for the rest of the ticket.

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Orders have been received from Washington to increase the mail service between San Bernardin and Prescott, Arizona, from weekly to semi weekly, commencing July 1st.

Two tons of what is pronounced to be the richest rock yet seen in this city arrived to day from Clara District. It is said to assay $2 000 in silver per ton.

On the affidavit of Deputy U S Marshal Dunlap the case of Wm A Ford, the National Bank note counterfeiter was postponed to June 19. From the extraordinary situation of the U S authority here it would appear that it is worse than useless for officers to ferret out and arrest U S criminals, with no prosecuting attorney and no authority to employ counsel. The consequence is that if a commitment is made it is by the purchase of irresistible evidence.

POLITICAL NOTES.

It is now considered certain by those who ought to know that General Garfield will be Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. It is stated that he twice declined the Governorship of Ohio for the express purpose of accepting the position, which it is understood has already been tendered him by Speaker Blaine.

Hon Edward D Holton of Wisconsin has written a letter declining the use of his name as a temperance candidate for Governor and presenting forcible reasons why a third party should not be organized as proposed at the present time, and why all loyal men should continue to support and encourage actively and zealously the Administration of President Grant.

Those Ohio Democratic doctors do not agree. Vallandigham has one platform for Montgomery county, and Campbell has another for Butler county. The Columbus Statesman asserts that the Democracy of Ohio has accepted the Fifteenth Amendment from the outset in good faith; and the Cincinnati Enquirer says that the same Democracy believe that the Constitution was altered by fraud and force and do not intend to be mealy mouthed in their expression of the outrage.

The Louisville Ledger condemns Vallandigham's new departure in set terms. It asserts that his great weakness is overweening vanity and that the fact that the people decided him unfit for a leader has made him sour and almost desperate. Early in the war it says he sought martyrdom for the sake of notoriety, and thus lost to the Democracy the Northwest and now, with his long wordy and windy resolutions, which, when analyzed, contain very little that is new he had better stand aside and permit the Democracy, unobstructed to take its position on the Kentucky platform.

PERSONAL NOTES.

A Southern journal has discovered another old Congressman—Colonel J J Chappell of Alabama—who represented the Columbia (S C) District from 1812 until 1815.

President Grant has accepted an invitation to visit Bangor, Maine, on the 11th of October next, to participate in the ceremonies at the opening of the European and North American Railroad, upon its completion to St John.

A banquet was given at Delmonico's in New York City on the 23d of May to the members of the Joint High Commission by Cyrus W Field. Ex Senator Williams responded to a toast in behalf of the American members of the Commission.

Senator Corbett is now at Worcester, Mass. It is understood that he will shortly return to Oregon and not go to Europe this summer, as previously announced. We have been informed that he will probably be at home in three or four weeks.

The Senators from Oregon, it is stated, (we know not whether correctly or not,) voted against the treaty of Washington because of the provision regarding San Juan. They preferred that the question should not be referred to the Emperor of Germany lest the present Emperor (who is quite old) should die before a conclusion is reached, and the Crown Prince (who is a son in law to the Queen of England) should be influenced against us.

CURRENT NOTES.

Cornell University has recently sold 100 000 acres of land which came to it under the agricultural college land grant, for four dollars an acre.

Carats relate to the fineness of gold; karats refer to the weight of precious stones. The difference is the difference between quality and weight.

During the past year two hundred and twenty churches, in twenty-eight States and Territories, representing more than one hundred Presbyteries, received aid from the Presbyterian Church Erection Fund. There are about six hundred organized congregations connected with that denomination which are still without houses of worship.

The Chicago Board of Aldermen have decided that licenses to news boys and boot blacks to pursue their vocations, shall only be granted on certificates of good moral character. As a logical sequence licenses should be refused to persons of all trades whose morality is not unimpeachable. Having made such a vast stride toward reform the Board now proposes to prohibit its members from elevating their feet on their desks. The Tribune thinks that if the Alderman happens to make a better appearance as to his feet than as to his head, he should be certainly allowed to present himself feet foremost.

The Triumph of America.

It is a suggestive fact that while narrow minded journals of the Democratic opposition in this country are denouncing the treaty of Washington as too favorable to Great Britain many Englishmen are declaring that the advantages are wholly on our side. The London Saturday Review says that the treaty is an act of unqualified submission on the part of Great Britain. We quote a portion of its article:

The Treaty proves to be an absolute surrender of every point for which successive English Governments have contended. It commences with the humble apology which was handed in vain by Mr. Sumner and Mr. Fish and the English Commissioners as if for the express purpose of humiliating their country have committed the blunder of declaring that the law which they recognize for the purpose of compensation was not in force when the supposed liability was incurred. A penalty inflicted for the breach of a legal obligation would have been comparatively endurable. The excuse for their inconsistency is founded on the professed desire of the English Government to cultivate friendly relations with the United States. A thinner veil could not have been woven to disguise the [illegible] It is not easy to understand the imminence of the danger which seems to have frightened the Commissioners. At the worst the American Government could only have threatened a lawless invasion of Canada, and it is not likely that so coarse a menace was used to accelerate the negotiation. If any patriotic American desires fully to appreciate the triumph of his country, he has only to contrast the Treaty with the dispatches of Lord Russell and Lord Clarendon and above all with Mr Bernard's excellent treatise, which from this time is obsolete. It is not surprising either that Mr Sumner expresses general satisfaction with the Treaty, or that he thinks it practicable to inflict on England the additional affront of making the arbitration exclusively one sided. Perhaps the more generous section of his countrymen will be satisfied with the ample revenge which they have secured for all real and imaginary offenses.

Tammany tactics says the New York Tribune, did not work well in Connecticut at the last election, as we have taken great delight in showing. It now appears, not less to our gratification that Tammany rogues fare badly in her courts of justice. One of the fraudulent Democratic voters in New Haven has been detected, tried, condemned and sentenced to State Prison and the Democratic register, who connived at the fraud, is likely to share the same fate. If things go on at this rate Democratic candidates will appeal for Tammany aid as vainly as Gov English did at the last election and Connecticut in that event will be lost to the Democracy without hope of recovery.

A Party without Principles.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

No intelligent man can have followed the discussions which have been going on in Democratic circles during the past few months without perceiving very clearly that the party is still in a state of chaos. It has neither leaders nor a policy. The only solid ground it had was cut from under its feet in the rebellion, and since then it has been merely struggling from one morass to another. It can now do nothing [illegible] on the outskirts of the Republican [illegible] and make demonstrations against [illegible] which end in renewed disappointment. There is nothing like unanimity in the party upon any one point. When one of [illegible] delivers an opinion his voice [illegible] drowned in a wild tumult of contradictions. Indeed the Democrats have been much more indebted to discontented Republicans lately than to their own regular [illegible]. The reason is that they have [illegible] which have the faintest chance of being acceptable to the people and therefore they are playing the game which some people describe as waiting upon Providence. They can originate nothing themselves [illegible] hope they may gain some advantage [illegible] the mistakes of their opponents. [illegible] groping in the dark for a policy and [illegible] at the hands of discontented [illegible] on the desperate chance [illegible] by an accident to find something [illegible] will suit them.

Democrats dare not openly declare their policy but are obliged [illegible] or vague talk about the Constitution [illegible] Republicans are determined [illegible] allow any more armed insurrections for the purpose of subverting the Constitution. This is a policy good enough for Republicans at present so far as [illegible] politics are concerned.

The latest instance of generosity and munificence comes from New Orleans. The boy finder of a $10 000 check returned it to its proper owner—a prominent broker of Carondelet street—and was rewarded with an abundance of thanks in words.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JUNE 7.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Orleans Princes.

VERSAILLES, June 6—Thiers, in conference with the Commissioners appointed by the Assembly to consider the bill concerning the Orleans Princes, urged that commissions should be attached by which the Princes were not to hold office before the expiration of two years and were liable to expulsion from France if they engaged in any intrigue looking to their restoration to the throne. It is now reported that Thiers has ceased to insist on these conditions.

Dispatches from Paris.

PARIS June 6—Postal service is completely restored.

It is announced that 20,000 Communist prisoners will be transported to New Caledonia.

Dispatches from Berlin.

BERLIN, June 6—Commercial relations between Germany and France have been restored to the same footing as before the war.

Dispatches from Rome.

ROME June 6—An Encyclical letter has been issued calling on Catholics throughout the world to give thanks to God on the occasion of the Pope's jubilee.

Dispatch from London.

LONDON, June 6—The House of Lords passed the bill authorizing Canada to organize territorial governments in the country lying between the Dominion and the Pacific coast.

Advices from Hongkong to May 25 report that the coolie ship from Macao for Callao, was burnt at sea, and 600 coolies perished in the flames. The particulars received are conflicting.

EASTERN STATES.

Storm in Texas.

GALVESTON June 6—A terrible storm has prevailed here since noon last Saturday. The wind forced water from the gulf on the island, covering it to the depth of several feet in the southern portion of the city. About two miles of the track of the Galveston Houston and Henderson Railroad have been washed away two miles above the city. Many buildings in the lower part of the city have been washed away. No lives were lost. Six inches of rain have fallen since two o'clock Saturday afternoon. The storm also prevailed to a great extent at Houston, and much damage was done there.

Atlantic Cable Rates.

NEW YORK, June 6—The Atlantic Cable Company to-day announce that the cable tariff for ten word messages after July 1st will be ten dollars gold, the date, address and signature to be counted and paid for. The limit of messages to fifty words has been removed and press dispatches hereafter will be charged full rates.

New Hampshire Politics.

CONCORD, June 6—There is no reason to change the prediction that Weston will be elected. No doubt a majority of the House is made up as heretofore, of Republicans but for some reason or another they will coalesce with the Democrats.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Ku Klux.

WASHINGTON, June 6—The sub committee for the investigation of alleged outrages in the South held a meeting to-day, which was occupied throughout with the examination of Gov. Orr, of South Carolina. He stated that he had no personal knowledge of the Ku Klux, and did not believe they existed in his section of the State. He expressed the opinion that such an organization did exist in some counties of North Carolina and that its object was to intimidate colored people from voting at the election in 18.. He believed the Constitution of the Council of Safety published in the Charleston Republican last February was the basis of the organization.

The discontented colored laborers renewed their interferences with the white employees on the public works to-day. Several arrests were made. A large force of police are preventing any dangerous outbreaks.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO June 6—The weather is cooler and the wind blowing fresh from the south west.

The schooner J H [illegible] arrived to-day from Kiowack, Alaska with furs to Lynde & Hough.

It is stated positively that Alvinza Hayward yesterday bought out the entire interest of the Union Mill and Mining Co in the Crown Point Co, amounting to 4,100 shares, at the round price of $2,230,000, the largest transaction in stocks ever reported in San Francisco. There are some who doubt the statement looking upon it as an indication of a vigorous bull movement.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

Prince Bismarck was recently asked his opinion regarding the civil war in France. His reply was, "[illegible]"—in other words, "I don't care two straws about it."

During the reign of the Commune, the Bank of France was compelled to "loan" them $1,500,000, which will be lost to the Bank, unless the Versailles Government should vote to restore it to them.

It is stated that the grand total of the Communist forces amounted to 190,125 men, of whom 162,561 answered to their names when the muster roll was made up. Of these numbers, 96,000 belonged to the marching legion and 94,000 were reserved for garrison duty.

"President" Correro has a novel way of replenishing the Panama Treasury. He recently invited a number of wealthy citizens to meet and make known their views concerning the financial situation. He then placed a guard over them and announced his plan for raising a loan of $30,000. Correro's propositions were doubtless accepted as we learn the gentlemen preferred giving their notes for the amount to languishing in prison. An agent will soon reach New York to negotiate these notes, and purchase munitions of war.

While the largest breweries of England produce each from seventy to ninety million quarts of beer annually, the largest brewery of Germany produces about twenty three million quarts and the largest of Austria about thirty eight millions of quarts. Irrespective of its export and import, England consumes about one hundred and twenty quarts of the beverage annually to each head of her population; Belgium, sixty four; Germany, forty eight; Austria, twenty; France eighteen; Switzerland, sixteen quarts. At Munich, Bavaria, about two hundred and thirty quarts of lager beer to each head of the population are consumed annually. Munich is the most noted city for beer drinking in the world.

There are diverse statements regarding the condition of the ex Emperor Napoleon's coffers. The understanding is fostered that he is so poor as to be compelled to borrow money from an English banker in order to maintain himself and keep out of the almshouse. On the other hand shrewd suppositions exist that his ex Majesty is something richer than a church mouse. His fortune and that of the Empress in the banks of Madrid, Frankfort, Brussels and London, is estimated at the good round sum of 180,000,000 francs. They have also money in the Mediterranean and Trans Atlantic steamship companies, and the Empress also had stock to the value of many millions of francs in the Soleil Insurance Company of Paris, which wound up its affairs just before the war began—the Empress having received her share barely six weeks before her flight from the Tuileries.

The New York Tribune says: "Suffrage is to the women of this or any other country a right given or withheld, which trenches on their worldly comfort, probably, but does not touch in one whit their moral sense or the relations and obligations between God and their souls."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, June 7—A Times' special dispatch from Berlin contains the following items:

Thiers insists on giving the Republic a fair trial.

VERSAILLES June 7—The La Liberte says that a compromise is effected under which the exile law is repealed as regards Orleans Princes, and their election to the Assembly declared valid; but the Princes will not sit and agree not to intrigue. It is said that Thiers agrees to the plan.

The La Verite estimates the damage to [illegible] at eight million francs of merchandise burned, excluding docks and warehouses.

The Hygiene Council declares that there will be no epidemic if precautions are taken to prevent it, and that the health of Paris is satisfactory.

The Journal Officielle contains an Italian note guaranteeing to redeliver escaping insurgents.

Lullier has been arrested.

Reported disturbances at Lyons are false.

Gen Assy's trial will come off July 1st.

Arrests continue.

Louis Blanc has written to Pyatt denouncing the Commune.

It is said that Ferry will be Minister to Washington.

MADRID, June 6—Minister Moral will resign if disagreement continues with the Commission of Cortes and Budget continues.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON June 7—The San Domingo report and accompanying documents are at last completed and will be issued next week.

EASTERN STATES.

The Flood Abating.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7—The water remains stationary being an inch below the highest point reached. People continue moving from the overflowed districts. The city authorities and charitable committees continue to distribute food to the needy in the overflowed quarters.

NEW YORK, June 7—Recent advices from Montevideo, represent the condition of affairs as not only not having improved, but as having grown alarmingly worse. About the 1st of May the yellow fever seemed to be abating and many refugees returned but the disease again broke out and the returned citizens fled in a panic.

The seat of government was about to be removed to Rosetero, at the last advices.

All communications between Monte Video and Buenos Ayres are positively prohibited.

There is no information regarding the mortality among American residents.

CANADA.

HALIFAX June 7—Three members of the Nova Scotia Government have been appointed a delegation to confer with the Government of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island with a view to united action against the Washington treaty.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7—The heated term appears to be over, and a furious northwester is now blowing.

News from Sydney.

The iron screw steamer City of Melbourne arrived from Sydney this evening, having left there May 4th. She brings the following passengers: G H Hall and wife, Mr Hatherton and wife, Mrs Graham and son, Mr Metcalf and family, Mrs Swan, Mrs Walbridge, Dr [illegible], Aldworth, Smith, Green, Tillotson, Hitchcock, Love and 37 in the second cabin and steerage. She touched at Honolulu for less than fifty tons cargo. She is the pioneer of the new English screw steamer line intended to run in connection with the P and O Company's line.

Sydney papers give details of a terrible cyclone or hurricane in which the American brig [illegible], from San Francisco, bound for Melbourne is supposed to have foundered with all on board. She was owned by Williams of this city, and commanded by Capt Bryant, formerly a San Francisco pilot, who had just been married and had his wife with him. The crew consisted of eight or ten.

The Sydney Chamber of Commerce resolved to ask Government to grant a subsidy of $50,000 to Hall's English San Francisco steamer line.

Immense quantities of gold are being obtained from the Caledonian reef, New Zealand. The Thames gold fields are producing well.

Heavy floods done great damage in South Australia.

The Government of New South Wales will loan half a million dollars for railway extensions.

This steamer brought a petition from the Governor of New South Wales to the English Government to annex the Fiji Islands. She also brings large mails for Europe.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7—The steamship Nevada made the run from San Francisco to Honolulu in seven days and sixteen hours. The City of Melbourne was eleven days in making the trip from Honolulu to San Francisco and thirty three days from Sydney. When the City of Melbourne left Sydney the mails by the Nevada had not arrived, and the general impression was that the American line would not be started. The New South Wales Government had voted no subsidy to this line, awaiting advices as to whether the American line would start. The English steamer compares very unfavorably with the Nevada, Nebraska and [illegible] in general appearance, convenience and comfort for passengers.

The property holders assessed for Montgomery avenue opening held a large and excited indignation meeting this evening. A Committee was appointed to take legal advice as to what measures could be taken to defeat the confirmation of the Commissioners' report. One speaker thought the cheapest and most effective way would be to hang the Commissioners; others declared that their lots had been assessed for benefits more than the entire value of the property. The opposition to the Commissioners' report is so general that it is doubtful if it can be confirmed.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

COLUSA June 7—The delegates from Colusa to the Democratic State Convention are as follows: D H Arnold, Dr W H Belton, J W Garther and E McDaniel, all pledged for Haight but will be unpledged for the rest of the ticket.

LOS ANGELES, June 7—Orders have been received from Washington to increase the mail service between San Bernardino and Prescott, Arizona, from weekly to semi weekly, commencing July 1st.

Two tons of what is pronounced to be the richest rock yet seen in this city, arrived to-day from Clara District. It is said to assay $2,000 in silver per ton.

On the affidavit of Deputy U S Marshal Dunlap the case of Wm A Ford, the National Bank note counterfeiter was postponed to June 9th. From the extraordinary situation of the U S authority here it would appear that it is worse than useless for officers to ferret out and arrest U S criminals, with no prosecuting attorney and no authority to employ counsel. The consequence is that if a commitment is made it is by the purchase of irresistible evidence.

POLITICAL NOTES.

It is now considered certain by those who ought to know that General Garfield will be Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. It is stated that he twice declined the Governorship of Ohio for the express purpose of accepting the position, which it is understood has already been tendered him by Speaker Blaine.

Hon Edward D Holton of Wisconsin, has written a letter declining the use of his name as a temperance candidate for Governor, and presenting forcible reasons why a third party should not be organized as proposed, at the present time, and why all loyal men should continue to support and encourage actively and zealously the Administration of President Grant.

Those Ohio Democratic doctors do not agree. Vallandigham has one platform for Montgomery county, and Campbell has another for Butler county. The Columbus Statesman asserts that the Democracy of Ohio has accepted the Fifteenth Amendment from the outset in good faith, and the Cincinnati Enquirer says that the same Democracy believe that the Constitution was altered by fraud and force and do not intend to be mealy mouthed in their expression of the outrage.

The Louisville Ledger condemns Vallandigham's new departure in set terms. It asserts that his great weakness is overweening vanity, and that the fact that the people decided him unfit for a leader has made him sour and almost desperate. Early in the war it says he sought martyrdom for the sake of notoriety and thus lost to the Democracy the Northwest, and now with his long, wordy and windy resolutions which, when analyzed, contain very little that is new he had better stand aside and permit the Democracy, unobstructed, to take its position on the Kentucky platform.

PERSONAL NOTES.

A southern journal has discovered another old Congressman—Colonel J J Chappell of Alabama—who represented the Columbia (S C) District from 1812 until 1815.

President Grant has accepted an invitation to visit Bangor Maine, on the 11th of October next, to participate in the ceremonies at the opening of the European and North American Railroad, upon its completion to St John.

A banquet was given at Delmonico's in New York City on the 23d of May to the members of the Joint High Commission by Cyrus W Field. Ex Senator Williams responded to a toast in behalf of the American members of the Commission.

Senator Corbett is now at Worcester, Mass. It is understood that he will shortly return to Oregon and not go to Europe this summer, as previously announced. We have been informed that he will probably be at home in three or four weeks.

The Senators from Oregon, it is stated, (we know not whether correctly or not,) voted against the treaty of Washington because of the provision regarding San Juan. They preferred that the question should not be referred to the Emperor of Germany, lest the present Emperor (who is quite old) should die before a conclusion is reached, and the Crown Prince (who is a son in law to the Queen of England) should be influenced against us.

CURRENT NOTES.

Cornell University has recently sold 100,000 acres of land which came to it under the agricultural college land grant, for four dollars an acre.

Carats relate to the fineness of gold, karats refer to the weight of precious stones. The difference is the difference between quality and weight.

During the past year two hundred and twenty churches, in twenty-eight States and Territories, representing more than one hundred Presbyteries, received aid from the Presbyterian Church Erection Fund. There are about six hundred organized congregations connected with that denomination which are still without houses of worship.

The Chicago Board of Aldermen have decided that licenses to news boys and boot blacks to pursue their vocations, shall only be granted on certificates of good moral character. As a logical sequence, licenses should be refused to persons of all trades whose morality is not unimpeachable. Having made such a vast stride toward reform, the Board now proposes to prohibit its members from elevating their feet on their desks. The Tribune thinks that if the Alderman "happens to make a better appearance as to his feet than as to his head he should be certainly allowed to present himself feet foremost."

The Triumph of America.

It is a suggestive fact that while narrow minded journals of the Democratic opposition in this country are denouncing the treaty of Washington as too favorable to Great Britain, many Englishmen are declaring that the advantages are wholly on our side. The London Saturday Review says that the treaty is an act of unqualified submission on the part of Great Britain. We quote a portion of its article:

The Treaty proves to be an absolute surrender of every point for which successive English Governments have contended. It commences with the humble apology which was demanded in vain by Mr Sumner and Mr Fish and the English Commissioners, as if for the express purpose of humiliating their country, have committed the blunder of declaring that the law which they recognize for the purpose of compensation was not in force when the supposed liability was incurred. A penalty inflicted for the breach of a legal obligation would have been comparatively endurable. The excuse for their inconsistency is founded on the professed desire of the English Government to cultivate friendly relations with the United States. A thinner veil could not have been woven to disguise the true motive of unqualified submission. It is not easy to understand the imminence of the danger which seems to have frightened the Commissioners. At the worst the American Government could only have threatened a lawless invasion of Canada, and it is not likely that so coarse a menace was used to accelerate the negotiation. If any patriotic American desires fully to appreciate the triumph of his country, he has only to contrast the Treaty with the dispatches of Lord Russell and Lord Clarendon, and above all with Mr Bernard's excellent treatise, which from this time is obsolete. It is not surprising either that Mr Sumner expresses general satisfaction with the Treaty, or that he thinks it practicable to inflict on England the additional affront of making the arbitration exclusively one sided. Perhaps the more generous section of his countrymen will be satisfied with the ample revenge which they have secured for all real and imaginary offenses.

Tammany tactics says the New York Tribune, did not work well in Connecticut at the last election as we have taken great delight in showing. It now appears, not less to our gratification, that Tammany rogues fare badly in her courts of justice. One of the fraudulent Democratic voters in New Haven has been detected, tried, condemned and sentenced to State Prison, and the Democratic register who connived at the fraud, is likely to share the same fate. If things go on at this rate Democratic candidates will appeal for Tammany aid as vainly as Gov English did at the last election, and Connecticut, in that event will be lost to the Democracy without hope of recovery.

A Party without Principles.

[From the N Y Times.]

No intelligent man can have followed the discussions which have been going on in Democratic circles during the past few months, without perceiving very clearly that the party is still in a state of chaos. It has neither leaders nor a policy. The only solid ground it had was cut from under its feet in the rebellion, and since then it has been merely struggling from one morass to another. It can now do nothing but hover on the outskirts of the Republican camp, and make demonstrations against it which end in renewed disappointments. There is nothing like unanimity in the party upon any one point. When one of its pocket men delivers an opinion, his voice is instantly drowned in a wild tumult of contradictions. Indeed the Democrats have been much more indebted to discontented Republicans latterly than to their own regular supporters. The reason is that they have no ideas of their own which have the faintest chance of being acceptable to the people and therefore they are playing the game which some people describe as "waiting upon Providence." They can originate nothing themselves but they hope they may gain some advantage from the mistakes of their opponents. They are groping in the dark for a policy and eagerly clutch at the hands of discontented Republicans, on the desperate chance that they may be led by an accident to find something which will suit them.

Democrats dare not or cannot declare their policy, but are obliged to fall back on vague talk about the Constitution, while the Republicans are determined not to allow any more armed insurrections to arise for the purpose of subverting that Constitution. This is a policy good enough for Republicans at present so far as purely national politics are concerned.

The latest instance of generosity and munificence comes from New Orleans. The boy-finder of a $25,000 check returned it to its proper owner—a prominent broker of Carondelet street—and was rewarded with an abundance of thanks in words.

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 8, 1871.

The "Herald" and its New Principles.

The Herald chafes under the garb of its new principles. It wears that garb awkwardly, and with evident discomfort and disgust. Yet it struggles hard to appear well, and to cause all observers to think that it is in an easy and natural position. The poor ass that put on the lion's skin was not more careful, nor, for that matter more successful in maintaining its assumed character. The Herald has on a suit of reconstruction raiment, covered with a mantle made of the constitutional amendments and negro suffrage, and professes to think that the outfit is a most excellent, becoming and consistent one for a Democrat to appear in. But its contortions in its new dress are really ludicrous, as it sets out to show that the "Democratic position is now, as it always has been, strictly constitutional." It was "constitutional" in the last campaign when the party declared the recent amendments no part of the Constitution and the acts of reconstruction revolutionary and void; and it is "constitutional" now, when it admits the validity of the amendments and declares that it will not disturb them.

We are now told by the Herald that the "last three amendments to the Constitution do not alter, change or abolish the original form and spirit of the Government." It will be remembered that the chief argument of the Democratic party against those amendments, while they were pending before the people, was that they were calculated to overthrow utterly the primitive Constitution, centralize all power in the General Government, and erect a central despotism in place of the admirably balanced Government that we had so long possessed and enjoyed. Readers of the Herald will doubtless remember to have seen much of this in that paper, and will be surprised now to learn that the amendments have not at all changed the character of the Government under which we live.

The amendments are now acquiesced in, but the Herald bitterly opposes the laws to secure honest elections and suppress the Ku Klux. These laws, it thinks, are intolerably tyrannous, and it denounces them as bitterly as it denounced the amendments a few weeks ago, before it got its new set of principles. Now we expect that the Herald and its party three or four years hence will come along at their usual slow pace and accept the laws they now denounce, just as they have recently accepted the Constitutional amendments which they so long opposed. They have a most singular habit of coming forward with periodical starts, and arraying themselves in the well-worn and cast off garments of "Radicalism."

"Where in the Constitution," inquires the Herald, "can any warrant be found for invading the States, as the party in power in its Bayonet Election and Ku Klux laws propose the Federal Government shall do, and punishing individual offenders?" [illegible] neighbor, under those very amendments to the Constitution which you accept as "accomplished facts." Power is expressly given to Congress to enforce those amendments by "appropriate legislation." [illegible] the idea of the "invasion" of the States [illegible] Federal Government, that is simply a [illegible] secession times. The Government is always within the States, and that without "invading" them. It has authority within the States, and has always punished "individual offenders" against its authority and laws within them. When the Herald becomes a little more accustomed to its new [illegible] will be able to see and understand all these things. We cannot expect it to get over every difficulty at once.

The Walla Walla Railroad.

Citizens of Walla Walla have manifested much public spirit and enterprise in procuring a survey of the route from their town to Wallula on the Columbia river, with a view of ascertaining the probable cost of a railway over it and preparing means for construction of the road. Funds necessary to defray the expense of the survey were promptly donated, and Gen. Tilton of the N. P. R. R. was invited to make the survey and report upon it. This he has done. The report of the survey also embodies a brief but comprehensive account of the resources of Walla Walla valley and an enumeration of some of the principal advantages that would result from building the road. A careful and very accurate [illegible] to have been made; a minute description of the route is given and the probable cost of the proposed railway is carefully estimated. In a few days the people of Walla Walla county will vote upon a proposition to guarantee the interest on bonds to the amount of $200,000, to be used in constructing the road. The two papers of the town of Walla Walla both favor this proposition, which, it is thought, will be adopted by the people.

The route of this road is out of the line of that of the Northern Pacific; yet the Northern Pacific Company, as we understand, express a willingness to take hold of it and aid in its construction. It cannot be used as part of their main line, but will be a valuable feeder to it. By this branch the rich valley of Walla Walla will be able to pour the products of its industry into the channels of commerce. A valley which will ultimately be the home of [illegible],000 people will thus be opened, and a new career for it will begin.

We have already once published, but we [illegible] add here, Gen. Tilton's estimate of the cost of the road. The distance from Wallula to Walla Walla by the route surveyed is 31 65-100 miles. The total estimated cost per mile, including construction, stations, machine-shops, turn-tables and rolling stock, is $32,058, which would make the aggregate cost of the road $673,367. No railroad of equal length, in any part of the country, could be more useful, and no part of the country needs railroad facilities more than Walla Walla valley.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, the great Democratic organ of Ohio, does not subscribe with willingness to the "new departure" platform. It condemns especially that portion of Vallandigham's plan which refers to the payment of the national debt, and says: "The Democracy will not agree that the bonds shall be paid in gold, but will insist that they be paid in greenbacks, and that a sufficient number of new legal tenders shall be issued, not more than three hundred millions in amount, for that is amply sufficient, with the revenue in hand, and in process of reception, to pay off all the five-twenties."

From Mr. William Davidson, real estate dealer, we have a pamphlet copy of the report presented by a Committee appointed by citizens of La Grande, Union county, entitled "Natural Resources of Eastern Oregon." This report contains much important matter and is useful for reference here and circulation abroad.

OREGON.

A writer in the Statesman refers to the proposition to appropriate money for the Fourth of July celebration at Salem, and says: "Before we indulge in fire works let us complete water works."

Rev. J. A. Hanna of Corvallis has returned from the East after an absence of two years. He has been laboring in the interest of Albany College, for which he has reason to hope that an ample endowment will soon be obtained.

From the Jacksonville Sentinel we learn of a serious shooting affray near Rock Point, on Thursday, in which a man named Neidhammer shot S. D. Taylor through the right hand, rendering amputation of all the fingers of the hand, except the thumb and forefinger, necessary. The difficulty grew out of a lawsuit.

From the Statesman: A correspondent writes us that great excitement exists at Chetco, among whites and Indians, over the death of an Indian, who is supposed to have been shot by a white man who is married to a dusky forest maiden. Cause, jealousy. The Indians demand $1,000 as an equivalent for murdering the said "brave," which amount not being forthcoming, it is feared they will wreak vengeance upon the party suspected.

When the Whig party sacrificed its principles in 1852 it dug its own grave and the corpse was soon ready. It remains to be seen whether the Democratic party can make a like sacrifice and live. Oregon Democratic papers (except the Herald) predict a disastrous result.

Will the grand jury of this county at its approaching session make an investigation into Col. Dennison,s manner of keeping his accounts with the school fund?

San Francisco Commercial Intelligence.

From the San Francisco Commercial of the 2d inst. we collate the following:

The market for dairy products is unfavorably affected by unexpected overland supplies and free receipts from Oregon. From Chicago, 66 Welsh tubs, 45 pails and several packages have been received in fair order; quality fair to good, and held at 25@30c. A car-load in firkins is also known to be en route. This Illinois butter can be sold to cover at 25c. The parcel of Oregon roll butter shown us was the best we have seen from that section, and is being repacked here sold and takes the place of so much Californian. Eggs from Chicago are now arriving in Stephen's patent cases. They come in good order, and sell at 25c. Over 20,000 dozen Oregon eggs were received this week, which occasions much depression in the market; 2,000 dozen sold at 23@21c, but can now be bought for less. Within the past few days our dairy receipts of butter have been more free, and prices for choice roll incline to shade off—now quotable at 27½@32½c; firkin the same.

Wool—The receipts continue free, and Eastern buyers still linger here, buying all desirable clips within the range of 30@33½c. Medium grades are less active at 25@28c, while inferior and burry are almost unsaleable at 20@22½c—the stock of the latter steadily accumulating. Transactions for the week foot up about 750,000 lbs, the bulk of which is rebaled and assorted for shipment East overland.

The receipts of certain articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date, have been as follows: Flour, qr sks, 388,788; Wheat, sks, 28,247; Oats, sks, 3,404; Salmon, bbls, 2,652; hf bbls, 705; pkgs, 3,626; Bacon, pkgs, 1,423; Beef, bbls, 161; cs, 26; Hams, pkgs, 176; butter, pkgs, 248; Lard, pkgs, 404; Pork, bbls, 1,155; Dried Apples, pkgs, 979; Ripe do, bxs, 27,431.

On the east side of the San Joaquin river, it was said, three weeks ago, that no grain would be harvested; but within a week past, a leading farmer, resident fourteen miles from Stockton, declared that he would harvest more wheat than last year. This is all the result of cool weather and genial showers. Advices from Napa county are exceedingly encouraging; a very full wheat crop will be gathered—never better—and the harvest promises to be early; and so of the coast generally. In Los Angeles the grasshoppers have appeared in some districts, eating up "every green thing." We might extend these clippings ad libitum, but these will suffice, and we trust be convincing to many that the crop prospects of California are by no means as gloomy as represented; but that our cereal crops will be fair; and our summer crops of the lesser grains and root crops will be up to the full average, and our fruit crops, grapes included, will be more bountiful than ever before.

San Francisco is copiously supplied with funds; in fact, various causes tend to make money very abundant, and the demand is rather more active, especially from the country. Business is enlarging its field, and requires the use of more capital, while the real estate market has assumed a more energetic character; but the deposits in our savings banks exhibit no tendency to augmentation. Interest remains at 1@1½ in commercial, and 9, 10@12 per cent. in the savings banks, the latter on a monthly repayable basis.

Latest overland mail dates furnish the report of extraordinary ease in the New York money market. Loans of large amounts to leading dealers had been made on Government securities at 2 per cent., and 3@4 per cent. on miscellaneous collaterals. National Bank notes were at a discount of ½@¼ per cent., and large sums remained untouched, as there was a heavy supply of legal tenders.

The London market is overrun with money, heavy amounts being loaned at 2½ per cent. There was no demand for gold for export, while the accumulations were very large and increasing. The Bank of England has more than $170,000,000 in coin and bullion.

The Work of Devastation.

DESCRIPTION AND HISTORY OF THE EDIFICES DESTROYED BY THE PARISIAN VANDALS.

The name of Tuileries is derived from the fact that the tiles (tuiles) used in Paris were formerly manufactured on its site. The ground was purchased in 1564 by Catharine de Medicis, and the present palace commenced. Philibert Delorme was the architect. It was much improved under Louis XII. and XIV. In 1572, Catherine de Medicis gave a fete, a few days before the massacre of St. Bartholomew, during which were allegorical representations in which all the nobility, Catholics and Protestants, were actors. During the performance, the King of Navarre and other Hugenots, were prevented by Charles IX. and his brothers from entering Paradise, and were pushed into hell. This was very significant, for four days after the massacre took place, the whole having been arranged before the fete. Louis XIV. resided at the Tuileries before the completion of the Palace of Versailles. Afterward it was occupied until his return by the families of persons attached to his Court. In June, 1792, the mob entered the Palace, and in August of the same year the Swiss Guard were murdered in it. It was the official residence of the First Consul, and also of the Imperial Court of Napoleon. After the revolution, King Charles IX. and the royal family resided there. In 1830 the mob entered again and drove out the King. It was the residence of Louis Philippe until the revolution of 1848, when a party of rioters, in company with some loose women, occupied the apartments for some days. They turned the King's and Queen's bedrooms into dining rooms, and celebrated their orgies night and day in the most magnificent apartments of the Palace. In 1849 the Tuileries was occupied as a gallery for the exhibition of paintings, and on the re-establishment of the Empire it became the city residence of the Imperial Court. The facade facing the garden of the Tuileries is about 1,000 feet in length, running from the Rue Rivoli to the Seine. The style of architecture is mixed. The first or lower floor columns are Ionic, the second Corinthian, and the third composite. At the extremity of the facade are two lofty pavilions with remarkably lofty roofs and chimneys. The one on the Rue de Rivoli is called Pavilion Marsan, and the one toward the Seine Pavilion de Flore. Napoleon I. conceived the idea of connecting the Palace of the Tuileries with that of the Louvre, which stood parallel to it at about a quarter of a mile distant, but political events transpired which prevented his carrying out his designs. It was left for his nephew to finish this great undertaking. During the late Imperial reign the ground floor of the southern wing of the Palace was occupied by the Empress. These apartments were formerly occupied by Louis Philippe and his immediate family. The entrance to the state apartments is up the Escolier de Chapelle. The antique ceiling of this apartment formerly decorated the sleeping apartment of La Reine Blanche, and was brought from Vincennes. To the left of this is the theater, used as a supper room on ball nights; it is capable of accommodating 800 persons. Opposite to this on the ground floor is the State Chapel. The Salle de la Paix is a magnificent hall, used as a ball room. Over the mantel is, or was, a magnificent portrait of Napoleon III. by Muller. In the hall is a statue of Peace, presented to Napoleon I. by the city of Paris after the treaty of Amiens. Next is the Salle des Marcheaux, the finest of the suite. This has also been used as a ball room on State occasions. The walls are gold and white, the furniture green, damask and gold. The names of all the great battles of Napoleon I. are inscribed over the gallery, and the busts of all his distinguished Generals, and portraits of many of them, adorn the walls. The next room is the Salle Blanche or card room; the Salon d'Apollon, and then the Salle du Trone. The hangings are of dark red velvet, embroidered with gold; the carpets, of Gobelin's manufacture, cost nearly $100,000. Next is the Salon Louis XIV., which contains a number of valuable historical portraits. Then comes the galerie de diner, or state dining room, and behind these are the apartments formerly occupied by the Emperor.

THE LOUVRE.

The Old Louvre, which was recently connected with the Tuileries by the erection of the New Louvre, has been regarded as unequaled, architecturally, by any other building in the city, the eastern front especially being noteworthy for the artistic design and execution. Its famous colonnade, known as the Colonnade du Louvre, was erected during the time of Louis XIV., and was regarded as one of the master-pieces of that age. It consists of twenty-eight double Corinthian columns, the facade being 525 feet in length. A magnificent effect is produced by the grand gateway in the center. The gates were made by order of the first Napoleon, and are of bronze.

On the site of the Louvre stood centuries ago the hunting seat of Dagobert. During the reign of Philip Augustus the site was occupied by a castle which defended the Seine. In the center of this rose the famous Tower of the Louvre, long used as a place of confinement for noted prisoners of State. The present building, commenced by Francis, remained unfinished until 1805, when the Great Napoleon took the work in hand and completed it. The design of the building is a perfect square, each side being over 500 feet in dimensions. The order of architecture of the four facades is principally Corinthian or composite. The interior court is one of the most beautifully decorated in Europe. Many persons of great historical celebrity have inhabited the palace, including Henry III., Henry IV., Louis XIII., Louis XIV., Charles IX., and Henrietta, the widow of Charles I. of England. The new Louvre was partially occupied under the Second Empire by the the offices of the Ministers of State and of the Interior. It contained also the barracks of the Cent Gardes, the apartments of the palace domestics, the Imperial stables, and the library of the Louvre, formerly the private library of Louis Philippe, which comprised about 90,000 volumes. The entire palace is of vast extent, covering altogether over sixty acres of ground.

PALACE OF THE LEGION OF HONOR.

This edifice was built in 1786 by the architect Rousseau, for the Prince of Salm, and was purchased by the government in 1830. The entrance was in the form of a triumphal arch of the Ionic order, flanked by a colonnade of the same style. The front contained six Corinthian columns, forming a portico with the inscription, Honneur et Patrie. The principal apartment was a rotunda, forty feet in diameter giving a view of the river. It was decorated by Bocquet in the time of Louis XVI.

THE HOTEL DE VILLE.

This structure was situated on the Place de l'Hotel de Ville, formerly the Place de la Greve. It was designed for the accommodation of the Municipality of Paris, and cost $3,000,000. It was begun in 1533, and completed in 1605. It was the theatre of many historical events of great interest, and is intimately associated with the political history of the city and of France. From a window of the Hotel de Ville Lafayette presented Louis Philippe to the people, and in one of its rooms Louis XVI. addressed the populace, crowned with the cap of liberty; in another Robespierre held his council, and attempted suicide in yet another. On the steps leading to one of its courts M. de Lamartine declared to an enraged mob that so long as he lived the red flag should not be the flag of France. In the belfry was the town clock, which was illuminated at night. The rooms of the edifice were magnificent in their proportions, and among these were the Salle du Trone and the Gallerie des Fetes. In the latter the balls in honor of the visits of Queen Victoria, Prince Albert and Victor Emmanuel, in 1855, were given, and in honor of the Grand Duke Constantine, in 1857. Seven thousand persons have been present at once at some of the city fetes. There were, besides, six hundred rooms for clerks and the various officials.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN

OF THE

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Secured by First Mortgage on Railroad and Land Grant.

GOLD PAYMENT.

BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE PAYABLE in American Gold Coin, at the office of Jay Cooke & Co., New York City—the Principal at the end of 30 Years, and the Interest (at the rate of seven and three-tenth per cent. per annum) half yearly, first of January and July.

THE RATE OF INTEREST

Is a most convenient as well as profitable one, being seven dollars and thirty cents each year on every hundred dollars, or on the various denominations of bonds as follows:

Two cents per day on each	$100	bond
Ten " " "	500	"
Twenty cents per day on each	1,000	"
One dollar " " "	5,000	"
Two dollars " " "	10,000	"

BONDS RECEIVABLE FOR LANDS.

By the terms of the mortgage the 7-30 bonds of the Company are always receivable, at par and accrued interest, in payment for the Company's lands at their lowest graded prices; and by the arrangement between the Trustees and the Directors of the Company, in all cash purchases of land from the Railroad, 10 per cent. discount will be made from the purchase price whenever the Company's first mortgage bonds are offered in payment. In other words, Northern Pacific 7-30's are, if desired, at all times convertible, at 1.10, into real estate at lowest cash prices.

These Bonds, principal and interest payable in American gold coin, are now offered for sale at par and accrued interest in Currency, thus yielding at the present rate of premium on gold, over eight per cent gold on amount of gold investment.

It will be noticed that these Bonds may be used at the holders option as a LAND WARRANT, for the purpose of locating any lands which are granted to the Company at a premium of ten per cent meanwhile earning for the holder eight per cent per annum.

During the coming year it is anticipated that the Company will have completed sufficient roads to entitle it to patents from the Government for 3,000,000 acres of land in Minnesota and 500,000 acres in Washington Territory. For sale by

A Pitiful Condition

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility They complain of no specific disease they suffer no positive pain but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow-beings

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved every function interrupted

Now what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening not merely for an hour or two to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to) but radically and permanently

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain head of physical strength and energy the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influences Appetite will be created and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood fit to be the material of flesh and muscle bone and nerve and brain flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished

The Detroit Tunnel.

[From the Iowa Age.]

The building of the great sub-fluvial tunnel under the Detroit river, the completion of which is now assured by the practical consolidation of the Michigan Central and Great Western Railroads, will be the greatest engineering work of its kind ever projected in this country, if not in the world. The lake tunnel at Chicago, though of considerable length, is of small capacity, and will bear no comparison with that to be built at Detroit, while those carried under the river at the former city, though of good size, are so short as to be in all respects inferior to the present undertaking as engineering works. In the magnitude of the plan of its construction, in the capacity it will have under water, and in the amount of business which will pass through it, the Detroit tunnel will certainly have no rival upon this continent until the long contemplated scheme of uniting New York with the New Jersey shore by a tunnel under the Hudson is carried into effect.

The plan finally adopted by the tunnel company for the construction of the great work is substantially the same as that prepared some months since by Mr. Chesbrough, of Chicago. The length from Detroit to the Canada portal will be 8,568 feet. It will be built in two separate parts, with a view to diminishing the amount of excavation necessary, and lessen the liability to accident, and also for the important consideration that, if an accident should occur in one half the other would still be available for the passage of trains. The parallel tunnels will be cylindrical in form, and will be fifty feet apart. The diameter of each is eighteen and a half feet, and at all points under the river the shell of masonry will be two feet in thickness. The excavation will be made through a stratum of hard clay, and it is not intended that it should at any point come within less than twenty feet of the surface of the bed. Whenever it is found that the distance is less than this average, clay will be filled in to a sufficient depth to avoid the possibility of accident. In addition to the main tunnels a small drainage tunnel, with an interior diameter of five feet, [illegible] built considerably below the main [illegible] midway between them. This will [illegible] constructed, in order to drain the [illegible] tunnels while the work progresses, as [illegible] afterwards, and also to fully develop the character of the soil at the commencement of the work. The grade of the transit tunnels is one in fifth at each end, with 1,000 feet of level line under the river. The estimates for excavation and masonry are as follows:

	Cubic yards:
Excavation in open cutting	200,000
" " tunnels	223,000
[illegible] masonry (exclusive of drainage tunnel)	68,000
[illegible] masonry	3,000

[illegible] working shaft ten feet in interior diameter [illegible] be sunk on each bank of the river [illegible] between the main tunnels, and connected with them by lateral drifts, each with an interior diameter of nine feet. It is estimated that, without sinking any working shafts in the river, the work can be completed [illegible] years. The entire cost of the tunnel and approaches, including a double track [illegible] right of way at the ends, etc., [illegible] $2,650,000. The work of constructing this important international tunnel [illegible] undertaken by a company chartered by [illegible] Parliament under the name of the [illegible] Transit Company, and such action [illegible] needed to secure incorporation under the laws of Michigan has already been [illegible] company is organized on a basis [illegible] $3,000,000 capital, and is authorized to [illegible] stock and bonds, and to consolidate with any company organized for the same purpose under the laws of Michigan. The money for the undertaking will mostly be obtained [illegible] either stock or bonds being placed in the English market and funds obtained at a [illegible] low rate of interest, not over six per cent. The two railways interested in its completion—the Michigan Central and Great Western of Canada, will probably guarantee the payment of interest on such stocks or securities as may be issued, and the advantage [illegible] for the lines in doing away with the [illegible] system now established, [illegible] increased certainty and speed of shipment across the river, will certainly more than repay the cost of the tunnel in a few years. The enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and its completion will mark the beginning of a new era in American railroad engineering.

[illegible] Wife's Love.—How a Baltimore [illegible] Mantilini Game.—The Baltimore American says: A man named Shuman residing in South Baltimore, has of late [illegible] an idea that his wife does not love him with the ardor which should characterize [illegible] her husband, and in order to test her affection for him he, on Wednesday, penned a note to her in which he stated that he had insured his life for $2,000, and that she could collect the insurance when he had ceased to live, which event would transpire ere she read the note, as he intended to drown himself in the Spring Gardens at Ferry Bar bridge.

The letter was handed to a small boy, with the [illegible] he deliver into the hands of Mrs. [illegible], but the boy mistaking the directions given him, left the note at the house of a friend of Mrs. S. The friend read the note, and naturally supposing that suicide was premeditated by Shuman, she called Policeman Barling and imparted to him her suspicions. The policeman instantly started for Ferry Bar, and when near that structure, [illegible] walking leisurely toward [illegible] called to Shuman to halt for a [illegible] instead of complying with the request [illegible] upon the bridge, where he calmly [illegible] the coming up of the officer, who, after ascertaining any conversation, conducted Shuman to the station house, and on the way the supposed would-be suicide and his preserver, were followed by a large crowd of adults and children who had heard the rumors of the latter, and which had been promulgated by the lady who received it. Shuman after being taken to the station-house explained that he had sent the note to his wife for the purpose of ascertaining how she would be affected by the news. Captain Delanty therefore ordered his release. After quitting the station-house, Shuman returned to his home, expecting to find his wife in hysterics, but was disappointed. On the contrary, she was composed as a person could be, and appeared surprised that her husband had not drowned himself, as he had promised her he would do.

The Bourbon.

Count de Chambord, the representative of the Bourbon family, is urging his claims for the French throne. He has just addressed a letter to the people of France, of which the following is a synopsis:

He urges all Frenchmen to forget their dissensions, prejudices and animosities. He repels as a calumny the statement that he had renounced the happiness of saving France, and says: "The abandonment of true principles is the cause of France's disasters. The good sense of the country desires a monarchy." He denies that he wishes to have unlimited power given him, and says he desires to preside over the destinies of France while submitting the acts of his Government seriously to the control of representatives elected by the people. He repudiates the idea that traditional monarchy is incompatible with the equality of all before the law, and says that he would demand efficacious guarantees for the independence of the Papacy, adding, "the liberty of the Church is the first condition of peace in the public mind, and order throughout the world." He does not wish to reign with a party, but would accept the loyal co-operation of all, and would restore to the country religion, concord and peace.

This is what Harper's Weekly has to say about President Grant:

The general opinion of the President—the people's opinion—is, we think, that he is a plain, honest man, who means to do his duty as faithfully and patriotically in the Cabinet as he did in the field; whose administration has been efficient, satisfactory and creditable, diminishing the debt, reducing taxation, restoring the Union, and honorably and peaceably settling the most threatening foreign difficulty. The President's manly message upon the San Domingo question has removed any party irritation upon that point, and the Ku Klux bill, which the Tribune approves, is undoubtedly generally approved also by the people, although severely criticised in many papers. Undoubtedly General Grant is not considered to be a good "party" President. But that does not weaken him with the country so long as there is no doubt—and there certainly is none—of his fidelity to the principles of the party. This we believe to be the people's opinion of the President—the opinion, probably, of a vast majority of the readers of the Tribune; and therefore it is true that while the newspapers oppose, the people support him, and it is that general confidence which makes his renomination probable.

Miss Miles, the American Singer, in Italy.—A letter from Rovigo to the Trovatore says of the re-appearance of Miss Miles, the American singer, who has already won much praise in Italy: Instead of the "Barbiere" which ought to have been performed as the third opera, we had "Don Checco." At the first performance the public showed itself very much pleased with the performers, and rewarded them with frequent calls, particularly in the first act, which is far superior to the second. Signorina Miles, our new prima donna, sang in the most exquisite way, and represented the smart daughter of Bartolaccio with the greatest possible truth. Miss Miles was greatly applauded in all her songs, particularly in the beautiful duett with tenor Martinori, and at the Valzer of Vinzano, which she substituted for the Brindisi. Her benefit performance was a continuation of her triumphs. It is hardly possible to describe to you how she was received; for it was a continued and uninterrupted ovation of the most flattering kind. With every ending, encores. Five splendid bouquets, with very rich ribbons, were thrown to her, and all the evening there was a rain of flowers and smaller bouquets. Several poetical compositions have been dedicated to her.

The New York Herald is exceedingly anxious that we should make war upon the Chinese Government for its recent violation of its treaties. The Herald is not sure that China has violated any treaty; but then the Chinese ought to be whipped into respect for Christianity and civilization. The Herald is not sure that we would thus advance the interests of civilization and Christianity in China; but then heathenism ought to be put down. The Herald is not sure that we could put down heathenism by war; but then, by trying it, we should elevate ourselves by fighting for a noble and holy object. It would be a costly business; but who cares for that? It would be a bloody business; but what is life worth? We would probably fail in it; but the greatest men have sometimes failed. Why, then, should we not at once raise 1,000,000 men, build 1,000 ships, march upon China, and swear that we will never end the war till we have raised the star spangled banner over the palace of the Celestial Emperor at Pekin?" Thus commenteth the Cincinnati Commercial.

New York Street Cars.—The newspapers of New York have taken up street car complaints as the last sensation; the Herald devoting several columns to brief communications from complaining citizens. The papers disclose a most disgraceful state of affairs. As the car conductors and drivers are the poorest paid men in the city, few but the most dissolute vagabonds will do the work, and the consequence is that in most cases acts of rowdyism in the car are rather pleasing than otherwise to these managers of public conveyances. No sensible person there relies upon either the conductor or driver for protection from insult and violence, and the late hours of night are characterized by almost every species of outrage. Some of the lines are placing palace street cars on the road, charging double fare. This, however, does not mitigate the evils, and the citizens are demanding that special policemen shall accompany certain cars on some of the worst lines at night.

Shadowy Accuser.—The Bridgeport, Connecticut, Farmer tells a story verging upon the miraculous. It says that in the grave-yard there is a marble slab, marking the grave of Robert L. Backus, who died February 15, 1834, aged twelve years. On the reverse of the stone is a stain representing a woman with a drawn club. All attempts to obliterate the stain have been ineffectual; four other stones have been removed for the same cause, but still the shade comes back. The belief is that the boy was murdered by his mother.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY

OR

OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE!

HISTORY.

THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE ACTIVE principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thaspium Cordatum Origanis, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

It is the most sure and speedy cure for RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT AND RHEUMATIC PAINS, of all kinds that was ever introduced in the Materia Medica.

Read the following certificates of the above fact from several of the most distinguished citizens of Oregon.

Certificate from A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contributor to the Willamette Farmer, and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society:

OSWEGO, OR., March 28, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—Some four weeks ago I was entirely prostrated with Rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one 10-ounce bottle of the "Unk Weed Remedy," by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief; and by the time the bottle was gone the Rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard others say who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for Rheumatism. Yours, respectfully, A. R. SHIPLEY.

Certificate from the Hon. A. J. Dufur, ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon:"

EAST PORTLAND, April 1, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of Chronic Rheumatism: was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used the Unk Weed, and it cured me up. A. J. DUFUR.

Certificate from Hon. Gideon Tibbetts, a member of the City Council of East Portland:

EAST PORTLAND, April 7, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed Remedy" for Neuralgia and Rheumatic pains, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy. Yours, GIDEON TIBBETTS.

Certificate from Mr. James Bybee, the celebrated stock grower and "King of the Oregon Turf:"

SAUVIE'S ISLAND, January 14, 1871.

To DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your "Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure." I was afflicted for months with a very serious attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and tried nearly all the so-called Rheumatic remedies without any relief perceivable. I then tried your Remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure. Truly yours, JAMES BYBEE.

Certificate from Hon. E. L. Quimby, ex-County Commissioner of Multnomah county, Oregon:

EAST PORTLAND, April 1, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the remedy. Truly yours, E. L. QUIMBY.

Certificate from Hon N. H. Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon, and a member of the City Council of East Portland:

EAST PORTLAND, April 19, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I have been afflicted for several years with "weakness in the back," and wandering Rheumatic pains, accompanied by severe constipation. By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved, and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and efficient remedy. NAT. H. LANE.

Certificate from the well-known merchant, O. W. Weaver, Esq.

THE DALLES, May 23, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy" and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with Inflammatory Rheumatism. It cured me of that disease. My hands, wrists, ankles, indeed, all my joints were swollen and very painful. O. W. WEAVER.

Certificate from the celebrated musician, Prof. Otto Vieuxtemps:

OREGON MUSICAL INSTITUTE, PORTLAND, May 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I was attacked with severe Inflammatory Rheumatism, suffering great pain, and was so prostrated that I was unable to attend to my business. I used one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, and was entirely cured by it alone. OTTO VIEUXTEMPS.

Put up in 10-ounce bottles, at $1 50 per bottle.
